

COVID-19 specific resources

- COVID-19 Resource Library. Searchable by topic, audience, author, and type of resource. Links to education, recorded webinars, publications, physician order sets and other tools that have been developed or adapted for the time of COVID-19.

- Resources and supports for BC Health Care Assistants
- COVID-19 and palliative care event calendar. Find scheduled live webinars and education opportunities from organizations such as Pallium Canada, Centre to Advance Palliative Care and Canadian Virtual Hospice.
- Symptom management for adult patients with COVID-19. Adapted in partnership with Fraser Health
- COVID-19 resources related to Serious Illness Conversations. Conversation tools and resources that have been adapted for use in the time of COVID-19

- COVID-19 and Core Competencies Self-Assessment tool with resources for Generalist-ALL nurses, NPs, physicians, social workers, counsellors and health care assistants. This self-assessment tool includes links to suggested resources that address each competency. You can download this fillable pdf to complete the self-assessment or print. This resource document sorts the same resources by topic. If you have any questions about the resources please contact: office@bc-cpc.ca

Resources for the public regarding Advance Care Planning during COVID-19:

- Be prepared in the time of COVID-19. A step-by-step guide to advance care planning
- Information you need to know about life-support treatments that may be offered in severe COVID-19 illness.

YouTube channel

- Stories of the Heart Trailer
- Stories of the Heart full film (13:11)
- 5 Health Care Assistant vignettes (17 seconds – 1:11) on specific topics: Self care, team support, Elders in my community, COVID-19 fears, “this work feeds my soul”. Link to a catalogue of the individual video clips for educators and leaders of health care assistants to share with their teams. The clips could be a resource at a staff meeting, educational workshop, team building exercise, etc.
- Working in Health Care during COVID-19 - (1:36 minutes) with some themes that have arisen in our conversations with health-care providers. Thank you to all who have shared their challenges and strategies of working during the time of COVID-19

General BC Centre for Palliative Care Resources

- BCCPC website – resources for public, family caregivers, health care professionals and people with serious illness
- Resources for Health-care providers
 - Serious Illness conversations
 - Advance Care Planning
 - Symptom management guidelines for inter-professional clinicians working with adults living with advanced life-limiting illness.
 - Inter-professional palliative competency framework - The framework was developed to identify ideal competencies for health-care providers (HCPs) caring for people with life-limiting conditions. HCPs include generalist, enhanced practice and specialists.
 - Health care assistants
 - Nurses
 - Physicians and NPs
 - Social workers and Counsellors

